

Before we start: a few things to remember

Site leader 'placemat' to prepare support for Aboriginal students and staff

Site leaders should be able to support staff who are working with Aboriginal students and staff and help them to understand the cultural differences and expectations of Aboriginal students and staff.

Some advice to remember

Remember that Aboriginal students and staff may have different expectations of the school and staff and may have different experiences of the school and staff.

Before we start:

- Remember that Aboriginal students and staff
may have different expectations of the school and staff and may have different experiences
of the school and staff.
 - Remember that Aboriginal students and staff
may have different expectations of the school and staff and may have different experiences
of the school and staff.
 - Remember that Aboriginal students and staff
may have different expectations of the school and staff and may have different experiences
of the school and staff.
 - Remember that Aboriginal students and staff
may have different expectations of the school and staff and may have different experiences
of the school and staff.
- For more information, contact the Aboriginal Education Officer on 08 8226 0744.

For more information, contact the Aboriginal Education Officer on 08 8226 0744.

education@sa.gov.au / 08 8226 0744 l f

Ş

Ma a e