

Raising a complaint with the department

We recognise that sometimes things go wrong altogether, talk, listen and find solutions in a courteous and respectful manner,

Before making a complaint

Before making a complaint you should:

- clearly identify issues and the resolution you are after
- provide complete and factual information
-

