This is a mandated instruct on issued under sect on 9 of the

Schools are not required to adopt a dress code, but they're encouraged as they play an important role in:

- promoting a positive image of the school
- creat ng a sense of ident ty among students and the community
- support ng student safety through ease of ident f cat on
- making sure students are dressed appropriately for all school act vite
 - o cos ols nhirma

The governing council is responsible for coordinating the development of a school's dress code for the school principal to approve and adopt. Before submiting the proposed dress code to the principal, the governing council should record its decision to support

The principal may exempt a student from the school dress code af er receiving a writ en request from a parent of the student. Grounds on which parents may seek exempt on include:

- religious (dothing or adornments, unless the item poses an unacceptable risk to safety)
- cultural or ethnic
- new students (t me to purchase, wear previous uniform)
- it nerant and mobile students
- fnancial hardship
- genuine medical or family sickness reasons
- other additional grounds the principal may determine.

To minimise the possibility of confict, the principal must ensure sensit ve and careful considerat on when approving an exempt on. Adult students may seek exempt on on their own

All students and parents of students enrolled at the school have a role to play in encouraing the meet ng of these standards.

If needed, schools can provide spare clothing for students to change into, excluding those exempted from the dress code.

Where a new school has yet to be established and there's no funct oning governing council the following will be applied. Where this sect on is silent on part cular details to be considered, i.e. development and design considerat ons, the requirements of this instruct on outlined above will apply.

- All act ons to be taken by the governing council in this instruct on will instead be taken by the newly appointed principal. This includes, development, consultat on and design.
- For the purposes of consultat on the principal will develop a school dress code consultat on commit ee.
 - Where the new school is an amalgamat on of exist ng schools the consultat on commit ee will be made up of parents and students from the amalgamat ng schools.
 - Where the school is a 'new' school the consultation commit ee will be made up of a selection of parents and students (from Student Representative Council) of neighboring schools.
- Commit ee numbers will be determined by the principal.
- The principal will ensure that commit ee membership will, as far as is pract cable, represent the school community's standards, expectations, the diverse nature of the student population and have equal gender representation.
- The school dress code will be reviewed by the school's educat Dn director prioe to co/nsultat on with tsue nool
