

(Actions to be considered when your concern is NOT about an immediate threat to a child or young person's safety)

Have the issues, as they relate to the child's learning, social development or safety, been raised with the parents or carers?

Have the parents or carers been advised of local