

What happens next?

It's always important to understand what has happened.

- Talk to your child
- Talk to your school
- Talk to your family

Together, you can make a plan to:

- understand what happened
- understand what happened

This will be a part of the:

- school's response
- school's response

CALL

SUSPENSION DECISIONS CANNOT BE APPEALED

When a school makes a suspension decision, it is a final decision. This means that the school cannot be asked to change its decision.
